Summary, Conclusions and Recommendations for the SG Summit

Luis Alfonso de Alba Góngora
UN Special Envoy for the 2019 Climate Summit

In 2018, Luis Alfonso de Alba Góngora was appointed as Special Envoy for the 2019 Climate Summit. De Alba started his career as a diplomat in Mexico in 1983 and was first appointed Ambassador on December 2001. Over the course of his career, he has participated in numerous multilateral meetings, both at the global and regional levels. In his work, he has actively pursued the advancement of human rights, the rule of law, disarmament, the fight against climate change, and the promotion of development, including through the strengthening and improvement of the relevant international mechanisms.

Abze Djigma
Chair of the H.R.H. Princess Abze Djigma Foundation

Abze Digma is a Mossi Princess from Burkina Faso. She is internationally recognized as a role model for empowerment of the less fortunate, for recognizing the importance of the informal sector and for unleashing the potential of women and youth in developing countries. As the Chair of the H.R.H. Princess Abze Djigma Foundation and the Funder and CEO of AbzeSolar S.A., she is a regular speaker at high-level international conferences and meetings of the United Nations. She has held positions in several international advisory boards, including the UNISDR Private Sector Alliance for Disaster Resilient Societies.

Djatougbe Aziaka
President of Togo Welfare and Director of Eco Conscience TV

Djatougbe Aziaka has over seven years of experience in social, environmental, gender, and cultural issues, working as a print, radio, television, and social media journalist. She worked in several media houses in Togo, including Radio RDTS, Forum de la Semaine daily newspaper, and TV7, a private television network. Today, she is one of the youngest female journalist entrepreneurs in Togo, owning a media house. Besides her listed roles above, Djatougbe is also serving as the 2018-2019 Africa regional representative on the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification civil society organization panel. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in English Language from the University of Lomé.
Manuel de Araújo
Mayor of Quelimane, Mozambique

Manuel de Araújo has been the mayor of Quelimane since 2011. He was also elected vice-president of ICLEI for Africa in 2007. Prior to his current appointments, he was a member of the Parliament of the Constituency of Maganja da Costa, Province of Zambezia and Shadow Minister for Youth, Sports, Tourism and Culture.

He received his Master’s degree from University of London and a PhD from University of East Anglia. He has taught Economics, Development Economics, International Relations and Comparative Foreign Policy at the Higher Institute of Sciences and Technologies of Mozambique.

Vanessa Gyan (Moderator)
TV & Radio Personality

With degrees in TV and radio communications, public relations, & journalism from Brooklyn College, Vanessa has brought both her educational background and years of work experience from the US to Ghana. Vanessa has also officially launched her own lifestyle brand geared to providing a comfort zone for young girls and women.