Shirin Reveurs,
Senior Manager, CDP

Shirin Reuver serves as in the CDP as the Senior Manager of Cities, States, and Regions, Global Partnerships and Regional Lead Europe, Middle East, and Africa. In her current role, she coordinates CDP’s works with more than 500 cities in the EMEA region, helping them to measure and manage their emissions and water demand. She also leads CDP’s relationship with many of its strategic partners and manages projects on Monitoring, Reporting and Verification (MRV) of environmental data. Shirin has published several studies and reports on climate action and multi-stakeholder involvement.

Meggan Spires
Senior Manager responsible for Climate Change, Energy and Resilience at ICLEI Africa

Meggan Spires works with stakeholders at all levels and disciplinary backgrounds, to enable climate resilient development at the city-scale in Africa. Prior to joining ICLEI Africa, she worked at eThekwini Municipality (Durban) on their world renowned Municipal Climate Change Programme. She holds a PhD in Environmental Science from Rhodes University in South Africa.

Stéphane Pouffary
Founder and CEO of ENERGIES 2050

Stéphane POUFFARY works in the field of international cooperation for more than 30 years. His areas of expertise are climate change, sustainable development, cities and territories, renewable energy and energy efficiency, building and construction, governance and behavioural change. He is a specialist in low carbon and resilient development strategies as well as climate finance. During his career, he has worked for several international and national institutions and has set up, coordinated and participated in more than 200 multi-partner international projects.
James Vener
UNDP

James is an environmental engineer with 20 years of experience in the United Nations system and in the private sector. He provides technical assistance on the ground on issues related to climate change and the environment. James is currently working with UNDP’s NDP program on a range of climate issues, including policy development and governance, mitigation and adaptation, and finance. James gained his professional engineering certification from the United States and previously worked in the areas of construction management, remediation and environmental diligence.

Amanda Eichel
Global Covenant of Mayors for Climate & Energy

Amanda Eichel is the Executive Director of the Global Covenant of Mayors for Climate & Energy based in Brussels. Previously, Amanda worked at the C40 Cities Climate Leadership Group, where she led the regional and programmatic teams, and directed research and knowledge management efforts. Prior to joining C40, Amanda worked for Mayor Bloomberg’s Office of Long-Term Planning and Sustainability in New York City, and served as Climate Protection Advisor to the Mayor of Seattle, Washington.

Coulibaly épouse Dao Macoura
Mayor of Foumbolo Commune, Côte d'Ivoire

An engineer by training, Macoura Coulibaly is the mayor of Foumbolo Commune in Côte d'Ivoire. She plays an important role in local and regional politics. She is the Vice President of the African Women Elected Network and the Regional Director of Transport. For her work, she was awarded the Laureate du Prix d'Excellence du 2ème Meilleur Élu Local Édition in 2017.
Loglo K. Bruno
Mayor of Tsévié

Loglo K. Bruno has been the mayor of Tsévié from 2001. He holds a BEPC diploma and is trained in accounting and management. He served as a bank executive (caisse National Bank of Agricultural Credit CNCA) from 1981 to 1985. From 2005 to 2010, he was an advisor to the Union of Communes of Togo (the Togolese communes) and from 2010 to date, he holds the position of General Treasurer of said structure.

Georgios Grapsas
European Commission

Georgios Grapsas is an official if the European Commission since 2008 dealing with development cooperation. He is currently team leader of the energy sector in the unit for sustainable energy and climate changes of DG DEVCO and responsible for the Commissions funding for the Covenant of Mayors for Sub-Saharan Africa. Georgios is an experienced Engineer with more than 25 years of experience in the management and funding of infrastructure projects.

Eva Baños de Guisasola
Policy Advisor, CCRE CEMR

Eva de Guisalosa holds diplomas in environmental law and accountancy. Previously, she served as Executive Director at Aqua Publica Europea and as Policy Officer for Environment over 9 years within EUROCITIES. She also worked as a consultant at Eamonn Bates and Lovells Boesebeck Droste International law firms. Since April 2015 Eva has been working for the Council of Municipalities and Regions in Europe as Policy adviser on energy and international negotiations on climate. She is involved in the Global Covenant for Climate and Energy and the Covenant in Sub-Saharan Africa.
Emile-Gros-Raymond Nakombo
Mayor of Bangui, Central African Republic

Born in 1956 in Berbati, Mr. Nakombo has years of experience serving in regional and international politics. He is the president of the Association of Mayors of Central Africa (AMCA) and the Network of Mayors of Central Africa, and a Member of the Executive Committee of the United Cities and Local Governments of Africa (UCLGA). He has previously served as Deputy of the Nation for several terms and is a member of the Parliamentary Group in charge of Cooperation Relations with the Republic of China. He was also the founding president of the NGO PARETO (Peace Reconciliation and Tolerance).